Mational Republican

THE SOLDIERS' HOME. WASHINGTON, D. C., June 21, 1874. To the Editor of the Sational Republican: Sin: Will you oblige an inmate of this firstitution by inserting the following in your valuable paper: In the Sunday Herald of June 31, 1874, appears an editorial paragraph complaining that poor citizens cannot visit the Soldiers' Home park in carriages on Sunday, while the richer citizens can enjoy the drive all through the week. That editorial states that the 8 Home park is the only park the city of Washington possesses. The editor of the Revald is mistaken. Permit me to correct his mistake. The city of Washington does not as yet possess the park, and will not as long as there is an army in the United States. The management of this institution is placed by act of Congress in the hands of three general officers, visi The Adjutant General, Commissary General and Surgeon General; and for its interior discipling is a under the present governor, Bravet Brigadiar General T. G. Pitcher, U. S. A.—the above named officers, being the controlling power to decide when visitors shall be allowed to drive through the grounds. The Home property, park included, is owned wholly by its immates. Sunday is the only day we poor crippled ex-defenders of the country can walk over our own grounds without being in danger of being driven over by some reckless driver.

I would not have sent this article to you but that it seems to me that the citizens of Washington appear to be impressed with the ideathat they own the property, which you must know is not so, as the soldiers of the regular mouthly care and continue to contribute to the park, and will not as long as there is an know is not so, as the soldiers of the regular army have paid for it out of their regular monthly pay, and continue to contribute to its support, every soldier in the service contributing his mite. Respectfully yours,

AN INMATE.
